Medical Assistance in Dying (MAID) Legislation

UPDATE: Bill C-14, the federal government's legislation on medical assistance in dying (MAID), has been passed. It received royal assent on June 17, 2016, which made it federal law effective immediately. For more information, please visit: <http://healthycanadians.gc.ca/health-system-systeme-sante/services/palliative-palliatifs/medical-assistance-dying-aide-medicale-mourir-eng.php>.

We will be updating our Code of Ethics, standards of practice, guidelines and policy statements as necessary to align with this new legislation, and will share these updates with our members as soon as possible.

In the meantime, member inquiries can be directed to info@saskpharm.ca.
