

Social Media Policy

As a College, we encourage communication - social media is a great way to stimulate conversation and discussion. Social media is also a great tool for users to share information and tips provided by the College or other sources. Users of SCPP social media platforms are expected to adhere to the follow policies.

1. Be respectful and constructive. The College is committed to high standards and ethical conduct. It is OK to share your opinion, however we require you to be respectful and constructive. Do not post anything that is false, misleading, obscene, defamatory, profane, discriminatory, libelous, threatening, harassing, abusive, hateful, or embarrassing to another person or entity.
2. Know your facts before you post. The College reserves the right to remove or edit material that does not comply with this policy or is incorrect.
3. No spamming. The College's primary focus is pharmacy issues in Saskatchewan. In accordance with Canada's Anti-Spam Laws, the College will not approve posts that are promotional in nature or promote political views and/or causes.
4. Privacy is a priority. Make sure that your privacy and the privacy of third parties are protected at all times.
5. One person, one identity. The Community will not impersonate another person or allow any other person or entity to use false identification for posting or viewing comments.
6. You can't take it back. Search engines and other technologies make it impossible to take something back. Be sure you mean what you say before hitting "send."
7. Your comments are your own. Every person is individually and legally responsible for any comments on this site. Those comments do not reflect the opinion and positions of the College.
8. Saskpharm domain. The College is not responsible for any content or website outside of the www.saskpharm.ca domain. The College does not imply endorsement to any non-SCPP link, either by a SCPP employee or anyone posting on the site.
9. Permission to post. The College will obtain permission to post any content from another source and expects the same from the community.
10. Administrators. The College's administrators manage their social media platforms. Administrators will either use the SCPP logo or self-identify as such.
11. The right of SCPP. The College maintains the right to reproduce, distribute, publish, display, edit, modify, create other works from and otherwise use your posts, submissions, comments, links or other material for any purpose, in any form and on any media.
