

Centennial Pharmacy Award Terms of Reference

The Saskatchewan College of Pharmacy Professionals introduced this award in 2011 (SCPP's Centennial year) to recognize the great accomplishments of operating as a pharmacy for 100 or more years.

1. The pharmacy must be currently in operation.
2. The pharmacy must be able to prove their operating roots back 100 years or more. SCPP will accept nominations of any pharmacy that has celebrated their Centennial.
3. The pharmacy may have multiple owners over the years.
4. The physical location of the pharmacy may change but the function of the pharmacy must have remained consistently the same throughout the 100 years or more of operation.
5. A biography about the pharmacy must be submitted. In this bio the pharmacy is asked to provide SCPP with:
 - a. a brief history of the ownership of the pharmacy, including any changes of location and/or owners; and
 - b. an outline of community outreach and involvement.; and/or
 - c. any other pharmacy history
6. Saskatchewan College of Pharmacy Professional Centennial Pharmacy Award does not necessarily have to be presented each year.
